The committee decided to lend its support and encourage the organization of a base ball league, to be limited in membership to Holy Name members in good standing, certified to by the respective spiritual directors. An age limit of nineteen years was named, with a limit of two players over, whose ages would not exceed twenty years. It was decided that not team in the league should play outside teams without the consent of the governing board, though as individuals they could play on any other team or against any other team. It was further decided that all players should give their first preference to the Holy Name team to which they are attached.
